

Writing and Developing Your College Textbook, Second Edition

CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgements

Chapter 1 The College Textbook Industry Today

The Textbook Business

- Companies and Revenues

- Course Technology

- Textbook Pricing

- ACSFA's 2007 Report

Publishing Industry Trends

Higher Education Publishing Options

The Right Publisher for Your Book

- Association Publications

- University Presses

- The Ithaka Report

- Scholarly Publishing

- Professional Books

- Reference Books

- Trade Book Publishing

- Educational Publishers

- College Textbook Publishers

Publishing Alternatives

- Custom Publishing

- Self-Publishing

- The Open Access Movement

Appendix: Publishers of College Textbooks: A Sample by List Subjects

Chapter 2 How College Textbooks Get Published

The Publishing Process

- Manuscript Acquisition

 - Publishers' Lists

 - Levels of Investment

- Editorial Development

- Book Marketing

 - Seeding Adoptions

 - Self-Marketing

- Book Production

 - Book Design

 - Book Production Processes

 - Production Editors

 - Composition

 - Author's Alterations

- Book Manufacturing

- Book Fulfillment

 - Your Sales Reps

- College Stores
- Textbook Wholesalers and Distributors
- Used Textbooks
- The Textbook Package
- The Publishing Cycle

Appendix: Suggestions for Self-Marketing Your Textbook

Chapter 3 Interest a Publisher in Your Manuscript

- A Market for Your Book
 - Do Your Homework
 - Strategies for Conducting Market Research
- A Track Record
 - The Author Profile
 - The Author Team
- Reviewing
 - Types of Reviews
 - Characteristics of Good Reviewing
 - Why You Should Submit a Careful Review
- Contributing
 - Authoring Contributed Material
 - Characteristics of Good Contributors
- Making Contact
 - Whom to Contact
 - When to Call
 - What to Say
 - What Not to Say
 - What to Submit
- Your Prospectus
 - Telling the Story
 - Planned contents
 - Markets
 - Competition
- Your Preliminary Book Outline
- Your Sample Chapters
- Your Cover Letter

Appendix: A Simple Sample Prospectus

Chapter 4 Sign a Mutually Lucrative Contract

- Steps to Getting an Offer
- Establish a Positive Relationship
 - Trust
 - Power
 - Control
- Know How to Negotiate Your Agreement
- Understand the Language in Your Contract
 - Confidentiality Clause

- Non-Compete Clause
- Satisfactory Manuscript Clause
- Termination Clause
- Out-of-Print Clause
- Your Royalties
 - Advances and Grants
 - Royalty Statements
- Contractual Rights and Responsibilities
 - The Boilerplate
 - The Role of Internal Competition
 - The Role of Company Investment
 - Publishing Costs

Appendix: Resources for Expert and Legal Advice for Authors

Chapter 5 Why Your Textbook Needs Development

- Development Decisions
- Domains of Development
- Negotiate for Development Help
- Levels of Development
- The Development Editor's Role
- Whom Does the DE Work For?
- Establish a Good Working Relationship
 - Sources of Tension in Author-Editor Relations
 - Some Rules of Thumb
- Do Your Own Development
 - Get the Input You Need
 - Chart Your Competition
 - Your Competition Analysis
 - Networking
 - Get and Use Helpful Reviews
 - Your Review Analysis

Appendix A: Sample Competition Comparison Grid

Appendix B: Guidelines and Questions for Peer Reviews

Chapter 6 Write to Reach Your True Audience

- Reflect on Your Mission
- Identify Your Real Reader
- Avoid Undeclared Bias
 - Political Correctness
 - Pitfalls of Unwarranted Assumptions
 - The Place of Ideology
- Write to Reading Level
 - Readability
 - Principles of Reading Comprehension
 - What Is Clarity?
- Write Well

What Is Wordiness?
What Are Unity, Coherence, and Emphasis?
What Is Style?

Appendix: Academic Style Manuals, by Discipline

Chapter 7 Establish an Effective Authorial Voice

Reflect on Your Voice
Your Attitudes Toward Your Subject
Your Philosophical and Political Orientations
What Is Tone?
Your Attitudes Toward the Reader
Who Are You?
Achieve a Voice Through Style
Integrate Coauthors' Voices and Styles
Engage Your Reader

Appendix: Some "Bad Voice" Archetypes

Chapter 8 Why You Need Learning Objectives

Reflect on Your Instructional Goals
 How Do Learning Objectives Differ from Goals?
 How Do Learning Objectives Guide Chapter Development?
Apply Findings from Educational Psychology
 Activate Motivation to Learn
 Use Learning Objectives Well
Write Good Learning Objectives
 Bloom's Taxonomy
 Construct Chapters from Learning Objectives

Appendix: Planning Grid for Learning Objectives

Chapter 9 Why Heading Structure Matters

The Organization of Your Book
 Develop Parts and Chapters
 The Art of Chunking
 Write Good Titles
Develop Chapter Outlines for Your TOC
 Distinguish Chapter Outlines from Writing Outlines
 Use Levels of heading Appropriately
How to Craft Headings
What Headings Really Mean
What Is Topical Development?
 Overdevelopment and Underdevelopment
 Characteristics of Good Topical Development
 How Headings Guide Topical Development
 Concrete Examples Support Topical Development

Role of Headings in Marketing and Sales

Appendix: Developing Your Text Sections

Chapter 10 What Pedagogy Does for Your Textbook

The Functions of Pedagogy

Principles of Direct Instruction

Principles of Nondirect Instruction

Students as Active Learners

Forms of Apparatus and Pedagogy

Openers and Closers

Integrated Internal Pedagogical Devices

Interior Feature Strands

Pedagogy Pitfalls

The Pedagogy Plan

Appendix A: Developing Your Pedagogy Plan

Appendix B: Outline of a Sample Pedagogy Plan

Chapter 11 Create Truly Useful Chapter Apparatus

The Chapter Opener

Overviews and Introductions

Outlines and Focus Questions

Learning Objectives and Vocabulary Lists

Scenarios and Vignettes

Epigrams and Quotes

Internal Apparatus

Chapter Closers

The Conclusion

The Summary

Applications and Other Chapter End Matter

Appendix: Planning Your Apparatus

Chapter 12 Develop Successful Feature Strands

Types of Internal Text Features

Case Studies

Profiles

Debates

Primary Source Excerpts

Models and How-tos

Reflection and Critical Thinking Questions

Thematic Boxes

Supplement Tie-Ins

Firming Up Your Pedagogy Plan

Appendix: Planning Your Feature Strands

Chapter 13 Make Drafting and Revising Easier

Preparing Manuscript

Manuscript Preparation Guidelines

Camera-Ready Copy

- Submit Complete Manuscript
- Commit to Consistency
- Develop Drafting Checklists
- Manage Resources
- Monitor Topical Balance
- Manage Source Citations
 - Eschew Footnotes
 - Complete Notes and References
- Working with a Copyeditor
- Revising
 - Will Your Textbook Have Legs?
 - Revision Roulette
- Appendix A: Mechanics and Style Checklist
- Appendix B: Apparatus and Pedagogy Checklist

Chapter 14 Control Length and Manage Schedule

- Why Length Is Important
- Calculating Length
- Disaster Control Guidelines for Length
- Avoiding Length Creep in Revisions
- Why Schedule Is Important
- Types of Schedules in Publishing and Key Dates
- Developing Your Own Drafting Calendar
- Disaster Control Guidelines for Schedule
- Appendix: A Sample Drafting Calendar

Chapter 15 Do Permissions Right

- Copyright Law
 - Public Domain and Paraphrases
 - Fair Use and Other Restrictions
- Permissioning Internet Sources
- Permissioning Photos and Art
- Cost of Permissions
- Developing a Permissions Log and Tracking Requests
- Requesting and Handling Grants of Permission
- Disaster Control Solutions for Permissions
- Appendix: A Sample Permissions Log

Chapter 16 Enhance Your Textbook's Value Visually

- The Importance of Presentation
- Using Graphic Organizers
- Presenting Figures and Tables
 - Use Figures and Tables Appropriately
 - Provide Narrative Context for Figures and Tables
- Preparing Art and Map Specs
- Visualizing Information and Creating Original Figures
- Planning a Photo Program

Evaluating and Choosing Images
Writing Photo Specs
The Art of Writing Captions
Putting It All Together
Appendix: Ways of Visualizing Information
Glossary
References and Bibliography
Index